BRIEFLETS.

—April once.
—April fools are not the only fools.
—The dust got laid out yesterday afternoon.

—The Democrats are to patch up a ticket to-night.
—The dancing school drew a crowd last night, and all were merry.

—It looks as if Hazelton was going to have a twin brother all to himself, Tuesday night.

—George Burpee is reported to-day as being just alive, and with no hope of recovery.

—C. E. Moseley is on the move to-day getting his stock of books and stationery into the store just vacated by Mr. E. T. Foote.

—There will be a meeting of the Republican Club to-night at their rooms over J. L. Ford's store, Tallman block, at 7 o'clock sharp.

—The funeral services of the late David Cobb are to be held at Court street church to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. H. Fayville officiating.

—There was a pleasant little tea-party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Denniston, last evening. All present seemed to enjoy the gathering most heartily.

—R. J. Hogan, leaves his telegraphic position in the Northwestern depot to-morrow, and steps into the Harvard office, a better position, but one which will take him away from his many friends here.

—James Hutson is to-day shipping his goods to Edgerton. Mr. and Mrs. Hutson have been residents of this city for thirty-four years, and many will regret that they are going to make their home elsewhere now.

—The members of the graduating class of the High School are to-day undergoing examination by the County Superintendent. It's rather a queer day to be examined on—"April Fool's day"—but what's in a name? Surely nothing in this case.

—The Court Street Methodists held a social last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Joselyn. Jean Ingelow's "Songs of Seven" were given, Miss Kunkle gave recitations, and music and mirth were plenty. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the Society, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

—Those who are anxious to have good men elected as Aldermen can't find fault with the names presented by the Republicans. With Mr. Murdock for the First ward, O. F. Nowlan for the Second, C. B. Conrad for the Third, and Sutton Norris for the Fourth, the Council will be strengthened in good works. They are all practical business men, of good ability, straight, and have the interest of the city at heart.

—At a teachers' examination being held at Milton yesterday, the ladies hung some of their clothing in the hallway. While they were busy with questions and answers some sneak thief went through their clothing, and secured some little plunder. Miss Kinney of this city had a dollar or so taken from the pocket of her cloak, and another young lady lost about $6.

—Mrs. Emma Penny died at the home of her father Richard Downs, in the Second ward yesterday afternoon, at the age of thirty-seven years. She has been in ill health for some time, but was able to come from her home in Lima, to this city last Tuesday, but since then she has been failing. (Besides her husband Charles Penny, she leaves eight children, the youngest a mere babe. The funeral services are to be held to-morrow afternoon at Mr. Downs' residence at 1 o'clock, Rev. H. Fayville officiating.

—The city ticket, as made by the Republican Convention yesterday, has a first class head on it, and is well filled up. The toll know what sort of a Mayor S. C. Cobb makes, and no fault can be found. He has served the city well for a year, and he isn't the sort of a man to go back on his record. He will make just as good a Mayor next year as last, and in fact a better one, for he knows now all the ins and outs. The other nominations on the ticket are such as give strength to it.

—The nomination of Tom S. Nolan for Police Justice, is one of those happy choices which grow in favor the more thought is given to it. Mr. Nolan is a young man of excellent habits, with a clean record, and sterling good qualities of mind and heart. Those who know him unite in testifying that he is an indefatigable toiler, and one of the closest students and most promising young lawyers in all the Bar. He is no putty fellow, and although of very courteous and gentlemanly demeanor, has a grit like granite, and his high integrity will cause him to administer the duties of the office of Justice without fear or favor. He's a good one.

—A reference to the announcement of Mr. J. A. Denniston, in another column, will convince any one that he is abundantly able to satisfy the most particular persons in the world so far as can be expected and fruits are concerned. He always had the reputation of keeping everything that was good, but this spring he has outdone himself. Such an array of goods in his particular line, was never before seen in this city, and the more one examines the stock the more he is amazed at its attractiveness and excellence. If there is anything in Europe or America, in the line of jellies, canned fruits and meats that he has not got on hand, it has not been heard of.

MILITARY MATTERS.

Captain H. A. Smith has returned from Milwaukee, where he has been attending a meeting of the officers of the Wisconsin National Guards. An association was formed of the commissioned officers for the purpose of mutual improvement in military matters. General Bryant was elected President, and Captain C. P. Chapman, of Madison, Secretary. A committee was appointed to prepare a synopsis of the militia laws of the several States, and a codification of the Wisconsin laws.

The Executive Committee of the Soldiers' Reunion have decided instead of giving $1,500 in prizes for competitive drills, to use that sum toward paying transportation for the organized companies of National Guards attending the reunion.

NAMING THEIR MEN.

The Democratic caucuses were held last evening for the purpose of choosing delegates to the convention to-night, and nominating ward officers.

In the first ward John Buob was nominated for Alderman, and adjournment was then taken until Friday night to complete the ticket.

In the Second ward A. C. Kent was nominated for Alderman, J. J. R. Pesse, Supervisor, Ethan Allen, Constable, L. F. Holloway, School Commissioner.

The Third ward Democrats nominated for Alderman Dr. J. B. Whiting, and for Supervisor, M. C. Smith.

The Fourth warders elected delegates only and then adjourned until Saturday evening, when they will nominate ward officers.

In the Fifth ward William Hemming was nominated as Alderman; E. Rathern as Supervisor; Orrville Wright as Constable.

WORKING AT BOTH ENDS.

The news that the Chicago & North Western Railroad Company is surveying a route from Dixon to Rockford is of more than ordinary interest to our citizens just at this time, as it seems to have pushed to the enterprises now being pushed along here, and adds greatly to their importance. The following from a Rockford correspondent of the Chicago Times will be read with interest here:

As near as can be ascertained the object of this survey is preliminary to the construction of a railroad to connect the Northwestern road at this point, especially the Kenosha division, with the Omaha line at Dixon. This is part of a plan to establish a north and south route from Janesville, Wis., south to Dixon, thus uniting the Illinois and the Wisconsin systems. The line between Janesville and this city is already partly constructed. All that is necessary to make the unbroken run between Rockford and Janesville possible is to construct a short spur between the latter city and Afton, a station on the Madison division. The route thus open will furnish a direct line to the Wisconsin lumber, wood and ice markets of Wisconsin from Dixon and Central and Southern Illinois.

ATTENTION, GUARDS!

The corporation of the Janesville Guards will hold their regular meeting at the Armory, to-night. It is important that all should be present.

By order of the President.

THE DOCTORS YIELDING.

Ever since Prof. Green wrote to the Medical Record advising physicians everywhere to use the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure in their practice, it has been given in favor with the profession. They can find nothing which is a substitute for it. R. Caulkies, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., says he would now prescribe it to all who are afflicted with serious kidney and liver diseases.

DEATH OF MISS GOODELL.

The Chicago Times this morning gives the following, from its Milwaukee correspondent, concerning the death of Miss Goodell in that city:

The well-known lady lawyer, Miss Lavina Goodell, of Janesville, died in this city to-day. The news of her death will be a surprise to thousands of persons all over this country, who had come to consider her the best practical exponent of what a woman can accomplish and the position she may attain in the profession of law. Miss Goodell was born in Utica, New York, about forty-one years ago. She came to this State six or seven years ago, and has resided since then in Janesville. Four years ago she was admitted to the practice of law in Wisconsin, and last summer she was admitted to practice in the supreme court of the State. As a lawyer she was acknowledged to be an average success. Miss Goodell, from childhood almost, has been identified with great and successful reforms. More than twenty years ago she was an enthusiastic anti-slavery agitator, and assisted her father in the editing and publishing of an anti-slavery paper in New York, called the Principle. She was also at one time connected in an editorial capacity with Harper's Bazar. She was widely known as a reformer in all things that tend or are believed to tend in the direction of the welfare of woman-kind. Her death resulted from sciatic rheumatism, for the treatment of which she was here at a Turkish bath establishment. Her death was really a very great surprise, for it is only within the past three days that she was considered in any immediate danger. The parents of Miss Goodell are both dead, and she has but few immediate relatives. Her body will be sent to Janesville to-morrow. Among the lawyers of the State Miss Goodell was esteemed for her energy and real capacity, and the bar of the State will indicate its regrets at the loss of one of its really successful lawyers. Indeed her success in the profession after but four years' practice may be considered remarkable. The Times correspondent interviewed a number of the leading lawyers of the city and found among them only words of praise for the deceased lady. Every one of those interviewed accorded some measure of success to her in her profession. Said Hon. R. K. Morton: "The woman who had the humanity and bravery to denounce slavery from the public platform certainly had the capacity to make a successful lawyer."

Miss Goodell's remains were brought to the city this afternoon, and were taken to the Congregational church where appropriate services were held, Rev. T. P. Sawin officiating. He paid a just tribute to her many noble qualities of mind and heart, to her strong faith in God, her fearlessness of death, and her many humane deeds, her sympathy with the afflicted and the oppressed, her sacrifices for others, her visits to the jails, and the many acts that showed the true woman. The remains were taken to Oakhill cemetery and there laid to rest.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, July 30, 1879.

Messrs. Morgan & Allen, 59 John St., New York City.

Gentlemen—I consider it a duty I have derived since last Sunday evening, when I took my first 40 drops of "Constitution Water," recommended by a friend, it having cured him of kidney trouble. I have suffered a great pain across the small of my back so acute that it would awaken me out of a sound sleep, but, thanks to your medicine, I am now entirely well, and have not taken six doses in all. Your remedy is well worth $10 per bottle, but the price, $1, puts it within the reach of us all.

Yours truly,
ROBERT CATHART,
70 West 10th St., New York City.
